CCHS MEDIA CENTER NEWS

FALL 2010

Changes for 2010-2011 @ your library

Lunch Passes

Lunch passes will be REQUIRED for lunch by every student needing to use the library.

Lunch passes can be checked out in the library BEFORE school only.

These passes must be turned in by the student the same day they are checked out.

Students needing to use the library during their lunch will need to have a media center lunch pass.

If you have any questions about this, please let Ms. Failing or Ms. Holland know.

Electronic Calendar

The library will no longer use a paper calendar to schedule class time in the library.

All times must be scheduled via FirstClass.

The calendar is located in the "Little Red Schoolhouse" under the HCHE Media Center icon. From here you can view the calendar and fill out a request form for the time you need.

All correspondences will be handled via FirstClass.

A PowerPoint presentation has been sent out via e-mail detailing instructions on how to request time in the library.

If you have any questions or need assistance placing a request, please let Ms. Failing or Ms. Holland know.

CNN Student News is a commercial-free news show created for middle and high school students.

These programs deliver today's top news.

- Stream videos online or download for later viewing
- 10 minute program each day
- Downloadable podcast on iTunes
- Learning Activities tied to national standards
- These programs are all FREE!

Challenged Materials

Have you ever wondered what to do if instructional materials you are using in the classroom are challenged? The DeKalb Board of Education's Policy manual provides a Reconsideration of Challenged Materials procedure policy to follow for challenged materials both print and nonprint.

This manual can be found at:

<http://cnet.dekalb.k12.ga.us/internal/edmedia>.

Using the search box, type in IFA~R to locate this particular document.

Book Donations

Last school year the CCHS library donated 6 boxes of books to Books for Africa and 3 boxes of books to the Atlanta Day Shelter for Women and Children.

Thanks to everyone who donated books last year!!!

Keep the book donations coming because we will continue these book drives this year!!!
