Minutes

Call to Order – at 7:15pm by Karen Ruffin, Co-President.

Attendees: Angel Jones, Candace Steadman, Carmen Walker, Karen Ruffin, Margaret Eastham, Nancy Farrey, Nancy Kelly, Stephanie Carmichael, and Stephen Ruffin.

Review of Minutes – Minutes were reviewed by Carmen. Motion for approval was made by Nancy. The minutes were approved as read.

Black History Month Presentation – Mr. Carl McNair of National Achievement Programs enlightened the group on African-Americans in the U.S. Space program and provided insight on the life of his deceased brother, Astronaut Ron McNair.

Committee Reports

College Fair – Angel reported that the College Fair was well attended. It was held on Feb. 11th.

Campus Beautification- Angel reported for Mrs. Farrey that the next "Day of Service" will be Feb. 25th.

Principal's Report – Mrs. Steadman presented the Principal's Report. Some of the report highlights include CCHS taking 1st place in the 13th Annual Helen Ruffin Reading Bowl and having Seven National Merit Finalists for 2012. Two community SACS meetings were held this month with a "thank you" to Belinda Wedgwood for attending both. Thank you to Ms. Jones and Ms. Khalantari for organizing this year's college fair. One of our students is a nominee for the All American McDonald's Game and another placed in the top ten of the Health Occupations Students of America (HOSA) regional competition. The Men of Distinction recently completed "Jeans for Teens" Charity Drive. Lastly, the Boys Track Team will participate in the 100 Black Men's 7th Annual Youth Summit on Feb. 18th.

Old Business

Nominating Committee- Karen indicated that people are still needed to serve on this committee.

Adjournment - The motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Angel. The motion was approved and the meeting was adjourned at 8:15pm.
